

The Dearborn Rotary X-Ray

September 15, 2016

Jim Ives, Editor

Thursday's Meeting Summary

Today's meeting was a 5:30 PM picnic at Midway Sports & Entertainment on Van Born Road in Taylor. We had a pavilion to eat our meal in plus a wrist band to participate in miniature golf, batting cages, golf driving range, go-carts, bumper cars, climbing wall, etc. Rotarians and their family members attended the event.

Val Murphy-Goodrich and husband Steve brought the food. Which included Domino Pizza, Greek Salad, Garden Salad, pop, water, cookies, brownies, and cup cakes. We got to see Val's 1956 Dodge LaFemme, the delivery vehicle for the food. Weather was comfortable, food was good, and pavilion was conducive for conversation. Roger Miller did attendance and collected the money for the evening. His wife Lenice was by his side providing moral support. Ray and Sylvia Trudeau, Darlene Schoolmaster, Glenn Maleyko, Bob Gleichauf, and Bob Young were spotted enjoying their meals in the pavilion.

Rotarian families with young members quickly moved on to the entertainment. Jim Thorpe's two children and their guest were spotted in the batting cages. Val's husband, Steve, was also seen in the batting cage latter on. Regan Ford's two kids and their guest were spotted on the climbing wall. Your reporter also believes he saw the Ford Family, including wife Sarah, at the go-carts.

Rotarians also participated in the activities. Randy Knight and Janice Gilliland were seen at the driving range, as was Merritt Robertson. Jim Mackey and Kathleen Gapa were just two of the Rotarians to participate in miniature golf. Your reporter thoroughly enjoyed the softball batting cage and practiced chipping at the driving range.

Overall the evening was pleasant. Think the facility was a good choice for entertaining Rotarians and their family members.

Respectfully submitted,

David Anderson
